

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1890.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ADVERTISEMENT for these columns will be taken at $30 per m., for the evening edition and until 8:30 p.m., for the morning edition and SUNDAY BEE.

TERMS—Cash in advance.

NOTES—Advertisements on this page will be charged for at the rate of 1/4 cent per word for the first insertion and 1 cent per word for each subsequent insertion, and $10 per line per month, or $120 per year, taken for less than 21 cents for the first insertion.

INITIALS, figures, symbols, etc., count each line one word.

ADVERTISEMENTS must run consecutively and under no circumstances will they be taken or discontinued by telephone.

PARTIES advertising in these columns and sending their names and addresses in numbered letter in care of Tim Bee will receive a numbered check to enable them to get their letters. Ans. will be delivered only on request, and the publisher declines answers in envelopes properly addressed.

ALL advertisements under the head of "Special Notices" are published in the morning edition, except those of Tim Bee, the circulation of which aggregates more than 20,000 papers daily, and gives the advertiser the best possible exposure.

The Bee is also published in the cities of

The Bixby Omaha, but also in Council Bluffs,

Lincoln and other cities and towns in the west.
